Discover Cache Of Weapons

Sheriff Sylvan Ladner discovered a 12 gauge shot gun, possibly believed to be the weapon used by Leonard Fredericks, accused of the murder of Roy (Ray) Ladner, in Kiln, Sunday, October 28, about 11:30 p. m.

The discovery of the gun in the home of the negro man being held in the slaying of Ladner was made Saturday, Nov. 2. Other firearms and a large amount of ammunition, as well as a part of a whiskey still, and a number of barrels, some containing illegal moonshine liquor, were found in a hideaway under the Fredericks home by Sheriff Ladner and his deputies.

The cache was discovered after a week of intensive search by the Sheriff and his men, for the 12 gauge gun believed to have been the murder weapon in the killing of the 33 year old Ladner. A report was given by the sheriff's men that on Saturday they found a concealed trap door under Frederick's bed, in his home. The trap door opened into an underground passage way which led to a large cellar which contained the guns ammunition and liquor.

Ladner was killed in his grocery restaurant about a half hour after he and Fredericks had been engaged in a fight allegedly over money. The negro owned the building which Ladner leased for his business.

Fredericks surrendered Monday evening following the slaying to State Highway Patrolmen William Kenny and Fred Curet, and Hancock Coroner Emile Piazza. He was whisked away by the officers in their car from an angry posse of armed citizens of Kiln, and taken to Hancock County Sheriff Ladner, who brought the man to an undisclosed jail out of the county.

Ladner reported that Fredericks continues to deny committing the crime, and also denies being the owner of the gun.

Wins First Award In Drawing Contest

Marian Blaise daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blaise received first place award in the Group "A" drawing contest sponsored by St. Augustine's Seminary.

The talented little 11 year old girl a sixth grade student at St. Joseph's Academy, was thumbing through the St. Augustine Messenger Magazine which is received by her family and came across publicity on a drawing contest. Telling her mother she could draw pictures she proceeded to select as her subject "Jesus Changing the Water into Wine" and with-out her mother seeing her finish-out work sent in the picture to be entered in the contest.

The first that Mrs. Blaise knew of the entry was a telephone call requesting the age of Marian so that her drawing could be put in the proper grouping according to ages of children submitting entries in the contest.

Mrs. Blaise was beaming with pride when word was received that Marian's drawing had received first place award in the "A" group. Needless to say, Marian was a very happy little girl. And her picture is appearing in the current issue of the Seminary magazine.

Following the closing of the Plans were announced Monday evening for a speedy opening of the Hancock County Hospital Board a joint session of the Doctors of the County

A constitution and by-laws for the Board were submitted by the Hancock Association of Doctors. These were attached to a list of tentative hospital personnel selected by the Board and sent immediately to the Mississippi Hospital Commission, Jackson, and completed the application for transfer of opening.

With this step taken the Hospital Board is working hard and anticipating a speedy opening of the local institution to take care of Hancock County patients. A meeting is planned for Nov. 18 at which time the Board is hoping to be in a position to make an announcement opening date.

A great deal of legal procedure was necessary before the transfer could be made by the State Commission. The Board has been diligently working to wind-up all necessary red tape so that the people of the county could have the services of a local hospital.

An association of Doctors was formed with Dr. A. P. Smith named chairman; Dr. Frank Schmidt, vice-chairman; Dr. T. A. Quigley, Secretary. Resident physicians of the county are all active staff members of the association. A set of by-laws separate from those of the Hospital Board was drawn up by the Doctors' Association and attached to those of the Hospital Board.

Pat Clement, engaged by the Board to serve as Administrator of the hospital is expected to be in Bay St. Louis by the end of this week, and with his wife will be here permanently from the time of his arrival.

He will join members of the Hospital Board and the Association of Doctors for an inspection of the hospital building, and interior changes necessary to comply with State regulations and to enable securing liability insurance, as well as changes which will facilitate conveniences for both staff and patients will be decided on during this inspection tour. The Board does not anticipate too many radical changes in the present structure, and advise that the work of making such changes would not require lengthy time.

Acting Postmaster Andy Becker advises that the Post Office will be closed on Monday, Nov. 11, in celebration of Veterans Day.

...which was used about thirty years ago. The weather was still being caught along both bridges and green trout and perch were biting surface baits as well as under water. Ideal weather was the cause.

Tommy Elliott who loves to fish and hunt says he has been under the weather for the past couple of weeks and busy besides, says he is way behind on these sports and expects to catch up soon.

Luke Elliott was down from Baton Rouge over the weekend and enjoyed some fishing and golf while here. Luke says he is just a home town boy and likes to come over whenever the opportunity affords.

Big times are in the making for the annual Invitational Golf Tournament which will be held at the Pass Christian Isles Golf Club on Saturday and Sunday, November 16 and 17. Read article else.

The Cub Scouts really had a wonderful time on their outing last Saturday at Jackson Ridge. Oswald Deane and his co-workers are to be congratulated on the way in which they handled the affair.

Looks rather bad for the duck hunters when the season opens. Very few ducks have been seen hereabouts. Cooler weather will help considerably. The season is longer this year than usual and there is still time to bag them.

Rev R. J. Kirschenheuter, C. M. from out Los Angeles way, is here visiting relatives. The Rev. is not much of a fisherman, but does he enjoy eating them. He will be here all week.

25 men attended the regular monthly meeting Monday night of Scout Executives. Bill Watts, Dr. Robt. Stewart and Teddy Stechmann were re-elected to the top positions. Good look fellows for Little South, August Kramet, W. J. Phillips and others made an overnight fishing trip out to the marshes last weekend. We know they had a good time but don't know how much luck they had. They usually get their share.

ANNUAL FALL POLLED HEREFORD SALE

This beautiful Shetland stallion was purchased by Mr. Ike Boreman, of Baton Rouge, La. He is the owner of the B & B Ranch in Baton Rouge and paid $50,000.00 for the pony. This is the largest sum ever paid for this breed of pony.

The Listers came home the proud owners of the young pony, Topper's Rosetta, a full sister to C. J. O. Topper. She is in foal at present and her owners are anxiously anticipating the newcomer. On November 10, there will be a Dixie Horse Show on the university grounds, at Baton Rouge, La.

...J. O. Topper will be retired after this showing.

At a recent personal visit to Governor and Mrs. Earl K. Long, at Baton Rouge, Mr. and Mrs. Lister were honored by the Governor by being placed on his staff. Mrs. Lister was made Colonel and Mrs. Lister was appointed Brigadier General. They were presented with a beautiful scroll bearing the gold seal of the State of La., and the information honoring them.

The Listers are the owners of the famous and beautiful Pirate House on Waveland's Beach front. Their stables and their growing collection of fine thoroughbreds have made them well known throughout the South.

Miss Gaynel Lagasse was honored by a surprise birthday party given her by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lagasse, Jr., on November 2, at the family home in Waveland.

The patio, which was turned over to the "teen-agers" was decorated in pink and green. These colors were carried out on the delicious birthday cake, baked in the form of an old fashioned doll.
